

The Rapture, Resurrection, and the Millennium

The Bible describes a series of future events that will transform both heaven and earth, culminating in the thousand-year reign of Christ, known as the Millennium. One of the most frequently asked questions among believers is: Who will enter the Millennium, and in what form will they do so? This requires us to examine the Rapture, the resurrection of the saints, and the separation of the righteous from the wicked at Christ's return.

By examining Scripture closely, we can discern the distinctions between various groups of people, their timing of resurrection, and their roles in the Millennium.
